Class goals and objectives: Upon successful completion of this course, students will display the skills, knowledge and abilities to compose effective paragraphs and essays:

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:
Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

1. Compose a multi-paragraph essay that responds to an essay prompt with a clear controlling idea or thesis statement. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO4)
2. Compose a multi-paragraph essay with a clear organizational structure and adequate support. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3, ILO4)
3. Compose a multi-paragraph essay that uses correctly formed sentences with virtually no sentence-level or grammar errors. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO4)
4. Develop a research paper that effectively synthesizes ideas and information from multiple sources and utilizes correct MLA formatting of citations. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3, ILO4, ILO5)

Required Text:
Brandon, Lee and Kelly Brandon. Paragraphs and Essays. (please bring to every class!)

Required Novel:
Kaysen, Susanna. Girl, Interrupted. (Please bring to every class!)

Required materials:
Standard 8x10 hardcover composition book (your writing journal!)
Good, strong 3-ring binder – Writing/reading/study instruments; pens, highlighters, glue sticks… a good college dictionary is recommended.

Required website activities/quizzes/tests
CANVAS – count on submitting multiple discussion board entries per week
Owl Purdue Writing Lab: https://owl.english.purdue.edu/ - Great site to help your sentence construction, paragraph development, and essay writing.
Blogger.com – you will be responsible for developing your own writing blog.

Your keys to success (a fast five..):

1. Attendance: You are expected to attend and participate in each class meeting. It’s critical that you arrive on time, prepared and ready to learn. Students will be DROPPED after 2nd absence or fourth tardy (students dropped for excessive absences after the last day to drop with a ‘W’, will receive an ‘F’ for the course.)
2. Homework and Classwork: You will raise your skill levels (and your grade!) by completing all assigned work. You are responsible for turning in all homework at the beginning of each class. In class assignments must be completed with the required time-frames. Follow the examples that will be provided for you each week:
3. Writing journals: By keeping track of your writing assignments, you will be able to build on your ideas and reinforce your skills. Notes taken in class and specific informational charts pasted to your pages will help you develop through the course of the semester (and information registered will come in handy on open-note quizzes!)

4. Participation: Each class will offer specific activities that will invoke your participation: classroom discussions, partner talk, peer review, jigsaw analysis… Don’t hesitate to share. Get involved. Your participation is required.

5. Writing Projects: specific papers that will be assigned for specific purposes and specific due dates. They will compose a large part of your grade. You will not be asked to do anything that we don’t cover in our homework or in-class assignments.

6. CANVAS: Look each week CANVAS for exciting ways to develop your writing and boost your grade.
   a. Girl, Interrupted quizzes
   b. Jay’s grammar quizzes
   c. Paragraph assignments
   d. Discussion boards, blogs, wikis

7. ENGL 009 Common Essay Examination
   During Week 6, the student will participate in the ENGL 009 Common Essay Examination. This will be a timed essay which will be graded by English instructors other than the instructor for this course. The grading criteria will be based on the student’s readiness to progress to ENGL 110; therefore, the student must successfully pass the ENGL 009 Common Essay Examination before a passing grade in this course will be given.

MEASURABLE COURSE OBJECTIVES AND MINIMUM STANDARDS FOR GRADE OF "C":

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Develop and apply discovery techniques for expository writing with five or more multi-paragraph essays, including a mini research paper.
2. Design an essay plan based on concrete data in pre-writing exercises that produces a controlling idea or thesis statement.
3. Organize content to support a thesis statement and subsequent supporting paragraphs while studying and applying various rhetorical modes with emphasis on comparison/contrast, definition, cause/effect, and argumentation.
4. Demonstrate the ability to recognize and identify various audiences, both general and academic, focusing on academic audiences.
5. Synthesize ideas and information from multiple sources in the development of a writing assignment that is supported by citations from the reading.
6. Practice a variety of sentence types and demonstrate principles of effective sentence construction and punctuation, including correct use of the comma, semicolon, quotation mark, apostrophe, and parentheses.
7. Demonstrate an understanding of connotative meaning and figurative language in his/her own writing after recognizing this technique in the writing of others.
8. Practice and successfully demonstrate the skills in areas designated by the instructor to be appropriate supplemental activities of improved writing technique.
Simple Rules:
1. Be accountable! Any critical emergencies that may prevent you from attending class should be communicated through e-mail or phone number listed above. Work performed in class will be critical to your grade.
2. Do your own work! No one may type or edit your papers for you. Help and support is available in the Reading/Writing Lab. Be careful. The penalty for plagiarism involves dismissal from the class.
3. Absolutely no food or drink in the class, including bottled water, as per college policy.
4. Be respectful to others: No cell phones, beepers, walkmans, or other interruptions that take away from the learning of others.

Congratulations! You are a writer.

Jay’s Appendix for finding online help:

Help with Log-in on CANVAS

Student can login by visiting: http://imperial.CANVAS.com

For username, use the first part of your student email address (e.g. jdoe2)

For password, use your WebSTAR PIN (which should automatically be synced when updated via WebSTAR)

If you do not know your student email address, these two locations can help you find out that information:

https://www.imperial.edu/students/student-email-lookup/ (Does not require additional login, but will only work if the student is registered for 0.5 or more units for the current semester)

https://my.imperial.edu/student-email (Does require additional login to the Student Portal, but will work regardless of whether or not the student is registered for any classes)

How to get your Blog on:

This semester, you will be required to maintain a writer’s blog throughout the course of the semester.

FIVE TIMES, I will ask you to convert in-class writing, CANVAS work, or parts of your essays into blog posts.

Here is how it should look. Take a look at the following models to create your own:

1. Jay’s Museum of College Writing:
2. Teresa, Queen of Blog: http://teresaqueenofblog.blogspot.mx/

Here is how you get started:

1. Create a blog on blogger.com – It’s FREE, It’s EAZY, and this way there will be plenty of people around to help you or share new and exciting techniques. In fact, I expect you to teach me a few things. Let’s work together. I mean, we are Friends of the Earth.

a. Here is a website with a 20-step plan to get you started:
(Don’t Forget: You will have to first Create a Google Account before you can Create a Blogger Account.)

b. Here is a site on youtube that will give you a strong visual: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=n6PuHFpfscA&feature=sharecontrol

Step 3
Repeatedly click the right side arrow next to the month and year. Continue clicking the arrow until the date displayed is at least a few years in the future.
Step 4
Choose a day on the monthly calendar and click "Done" under the calendar. Click "Update" at the top of the blog and click "Close." Go to your blog to ensure the post you wanted is at the top.

2. Here is something I discovered this year to enhance the look of my blog: Flickr.com
   a. develop a library of images
   b. learn to upload your images by copying the embed code (I’ll teach you this in class.

3. Here is what you need to worry about:

1. First, your writing – rough draft - for the post will be checked and graded in class.
2. Your need to submit your post to be graded on CANVAS.
3. Your post from CANVAS can be copied and customized for presentation on Blogger.
4. At the midterm exam, I will look at your Blogger blog and review at least five assigned posts.
5. All posts must meet deadlines for full credit.
