Course Description

Art 112 Design is a beginning design course with 3D applications, and creation of 3D works. The course is to introduce the students to the fundamentals of design, and the principles of organizing three-dimensional space. Although design involves discipline and limitations, it is hoped the student will find ways to express his/her own creativity.

Students will research the background of three-dimensional aesthetics to broaden their understanding of creativity. In the course, students will explore using several different mediums: paper, wood, plaster, clay, etc. Some works may be enhanced with the use of paint, stains, or dyes. Students will develop technical skills to create or construct 3D designs.

Course Prerequisite(s) and/or Corequisite(s)

None

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will be given a series of verbal problems that will be solved visually. These will involve the sing of principles and elements of design, learning how to isolate, manipulate, and organize them, into a harmonious, cohesive work (ISO3, ISO2, ISO5).
2. Students will improve their communication skills, reading, and researching will be required. Besides textbook readings, students will be expected to read other design publications. The course will emphasize the expression of material (media) as a means of visual communication. In addition to developing an understanding of good design skills, techniques, good craftsmanship, presentation, discussion, and critique of assignments in a coherent manner will be expected (ISO1, ISO2, ISO3, ISO5).
3. Students shall develop a portfolio of designs (ISO2, ISO3).
4. The course will also broaden the student’s global awareness by the study of works form diverse cultures and time periods. The study of art solely for art’s sake, as well as the functionality and aesthetics of designs used by the populace will be part of this course.
Students will work on personal and professional skills beyond art, such as: self-management, self-awareness, and other workplace skills. These will be encouraged through project deadlines, attendance, participation in critiques, lectures, class presentations and discussions (ISO1, ISO2, ISO3, ISO5).

Course Objectives
Course objectives have been stated above in the course description and learning outcomes.

Textbooks & Other Resources or Links

Additional readings may be required and will be provided on Canvas or by the instructor.

REQUIRED MATERIALS: See materials list.

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

- Participation in class: Students are required to attend all regular class meetings on time. Absences from class and excessive tardiness will result in a loss of points towards the final grade. Students should inform the instructor by e-mail (preferred) or telephone if it is necessary to be late or to miss a class.
- Critiques: There will be critiques on most projects, all students will be expected to participate in by presenting their projects, its statement of purpose, and how it fulfills the design problem. Students will offer, and perhaps receive constructive criticism on their own, and their peer’s projects.
- Design Projects and Studio Problems: Students will begin, work on, and finish design projects and studio problems in class, as well as in homework. These works will reinforce the study of the principles and elements of design, with a working knowledge.
- Written assignments: Students will be asked to provide a written artist’s statement for at least one of their projects. Students are also expected to view at least 2 art exhibits (cultural events) outside scheduled class and to write short reviews of each, as well as an essay about a work of art or artist, historical or contemporary.
- Quizzes: There will be a few vocabulary quizzes. Some of these may be in the form of short essay, challenging the student to think about form and function, comparisons of art and design works, etc.
- Portfolio Reviews: Photographic portfolios of work completed by each student will be reviewed by the instructor during the semester. Students will make an appointment with the instructor for this purpose. There will be two class sessions set aside for preparing portfolios for review.

Instructional Methods:
Lectures/demonstrations and audio-visual presentations; ongoing studio critiques and discussions; studio, gallery and museum visits; guest speakers.

Students are expected to actively participate in the above, as well as to complete studio projects, written assignments, portfolios for review and attend cultural events/places.
Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

Unless specifically stated otherwise, all projects are to be completed by the beginning of class, and on their due date. Late projects will be marked down one letter grade (an A becomes a B and so on). Most design projects in the workplace have strict due dates that are enforced by contracts between the designer and the company/client. Therefore, due dates are important. Students will have the opportunity to improve, and/or redo projects, in order to improve their grade.

Assignments that require more time to complete are called design projects, those that take one or two class times to complete are called studio problems. Major critiques will be for the design projects only. All students will be expected to participate by presenting theirs projects, its statement of purpose, how it fulfills the design problem to the class. Students will offer, and perhaps, receive constructive criticism on their own, and their peer’s projects. This participation, or lack thereof, will be considered as a factor in a student’s overall grade for the course. As a potential designer, students should feel comfortable presenting their work to fellow classmates. Much of design is a group effort once in the workplace, hopefully, this aspect of the course will be invaluable training for students.

Grades will be assessed on the following criteria: (May vary somewhat from term to term)

- Class Participation, Attendance and Critiques 30%
- Design Problems / Studio Problems / Portfolios 40%
- Sketch Journal / HW / Quizzes 15%
- Written Assignments 15%

A = 90 - 100%     B = 80 - 89%     C = 70 - 79%     D = 60 - 69%

Attendance

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student’s status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student’s responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as ‘excused’ absences.
Classroom Etiquette

- Participation in class: Students are required to attend all regular class meetings on time. Absences from class and excessive tardiness will result in a loss of points towards the final grade. Students should inform the instructor by e-mail (preferred) or telephone if it is necessary to be late or to miss a class.
- Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class, unless otherwise directed by the instructor.
- Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed by the instructor.
- Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.
- Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, no one who is not enrolled in the class may attend, including children.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.

Student Equity Program

- The Student Equity Program strives to improve Imperial Valley College's success outcomes, particularly for students who have been historically underrepresented and underserved. The college identifies strategies to monitor and address equity issues, making efforts to mitigate any disproportionate impact on student success and achievement. Our institutional data provides insight surrounding student populations who historically, are not fully represented. Student Equity addresses disparities and/or disproportionate impact in student success across disaggregated student equity groups including gender, ethnicity, disability status, financial need, Veterans, foster youth, homelessness, and formerly incarcerated students. The Student Equity Program provides direct supportive services to empower students experiencing insecurities related to food, housing, transportation, textbooks, and shower access. We recognize that students who struggle meeting their basic needs are also at an academic and economic disadvantage, creating barriers to academic success and wellness. We strive to remove barriers that affect IVC students’ access to education, degree and certificate completion, successful completion of developmental math and English courses, and the ability to transfer to a university. Contact: 760.355.5736 or 760.355.5733 Building 100.

- The Student Equity Program also houses IVC’s Homeless Liaison, who provides direct services, campus, and community referrals to students experiencing homelessness as defined by the McKinney-Vento Act. Contact: 760.355.5736 Building 100.

Student Rights and Responsibilities
