Course Description

This class emphasizes critical thinking in reading and writing beyond that achieved in ENGL 110 or ENGL 101. Written argumentation will focus on deduction and induction, an understanding of the fallacies of language and thought, the application of valid evidence, and refutation.

Course Objectives

To ensure successful completion of the course, the student will:

1. Identify the structure of arguments, including the assertions/claims and the proof/support.
2. Analyze arguments critically, evaluating multiple arguments for validity and soundness, distinguishing fact from judgment and knowledge from opinion, and differentiating relevant from irrelevant support.
3. Analyze and construct both deductive and inductive arguments.
4. Write argumentative prose that defines, that analyzes causal relationships, that advocates solutions, that evaluates judgments, and that refutes other arguments.
5. Identify formal and informal fallacies in language and thought.
6. Recognize and apply the effects of denotation and connotation; emotive language; and various figures of speech, especially metaphor, within argumentative prose.
7. Revise written drafts and edit appropriately for an academic audience, observing conventions of coherence, unity, purpose, grammar, punctuation, and documentation.
8. Write essays and research papers, mostly argumentative and analytical, composing a total of at least 6,000 words of formal writing.

There are no shortcuts to good writing.
Textbooks & Course Requirements

- The online version of this course is completely online. The face-to-face version of this class is a Web-Enhanced Course. The student will need access to her/his IVC email account, WebSTAR, and Canvas. The student is expected to check her/his IVC email account daily. Specific instructions and assignments will be available only through the Canvas system.

- For this course, the student will need to be familiar with Microsoft Word tools for setting margins, spacing, alignment, page breaks, and setting up header information. Microsoft Word is available to all IVC students in the Outlook email portal.

- In addition, the student is expected to have a good, quality English dictionary. Bilingual students are encouraged to use a bilingual dictionary as well.

- Past students have discovered that working with research materials is more effective when the student has a print copy of the article(s) to annotate and highlight. However, this could cause a financial hardship for some students. Therefore, if a student requests, I would be happy to print a hard copy of the identified research article(s) for student use.

Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

Essay 1: Cause-Effect (Forensic Argument)
Assignment: One might expect students to plagiarize in the developmental writing courses as they are learning about research, writing, and plagiarism. What instructors are frustrated with is the amount of cheating in the higher-level classes like this Advanced Composition class. Develop a cause-effect essay in which you explore, through research, some of the issues in academic cheating. In your essay, what do you see as the major cause of academic cheating in an upper division college course? (600 words minimum, no more than 800 words, and at least two credible sources at least one of which is a scholarly peer reviewed journal)

Essay 2: Definition (Demonstrative Argument)
Assignment: A definition essay gives time and attention to a key term or concept. Within the student’s degree program, there are terms and concepts that require definition. After conducted some preliminary research into the student’s field of study, the student will develop and submit a definition essay which defines and clarifies the selected term or concept. The student must present a demonstrative claim arguing why this term or concept is important to students in this field of study. (800 words minimum, 1,000 words maximum, and at least credible three sources at least one of which is a scholarly peer reviewed journal)

Suggested topics from previous student papers:

Administration of Justice – Cruel and Unusual Punishment? Harassment and Bullying?
Art – Creativity? Conceptual Art?
Biology – Membrane Potential?
Business – Foreign Direct Investment? Cost Behavior?
Engineering – Fatigue? Fracture & Damage Mechanics? Mechatronics?
English – Authorial Voice?
Nursing – Mid-range Theory? Nursing Theory?
Political Science – Postmodernism? Neo-institutionalism?
Sociology – Hegemony? Pluralism and Diversity?

Essay 3: Problem-Solution (Deliberative Argument)

Assignment: The earth now holds over 7 billion human beings in addition to the countless other creatures that live on this planet. With the addition of climate changes, concerns are now being raised about resource allocation such as clean water and clean air. In an article written several years ago, A.C. Grayling suggested that we must begin discussing global population control. He suggests two options: mandatory limits to childbirth (family size) and mandatory euthanasia (longevity). While citing appropriate research, present your argument for one option or the other. (900 words minimum, 1100 words maximum, and at least four credible sources at least one of which is a scholarly peer reviewed journal)

Essay 4: Partner Debate (Deliberative Argument)

Assignment: With your assigned partner, select a topic which will be debated using deliberative argumentation. Together, research and develop a dialogue paper which presents a formal debate on your selected proposition. (1400 words minimum, 1600 words maximum, and at least six credible sources (3 affirmative & 3 opposition) at least one of which is a scholarly peer reviewed journal)

Grammar, Spelling, and Punctuation (GSP) Examination

Before the student will provide peer editing to other students in this course, the student must demonstrate a basic understanding of sentence structures, subject-verb agreement and verb tenses, spelling of common words, and MLA punctuation rules. This examination can be attempted more than once, but the student must score above 85% (17 out of 20) before a first draft can be submitted for peer editing.
Peer Editing
The student will provide peer review and editing for another student for each of the first three essays (Cause-Effect, Definition, and Problem-Solution). The peer edited materials will be returned to the student author with a copy sent to the instructor.

Comprehensive Outlining
At several points during the course, the student will develop and submit a formal outline for a particular topic or paper. Tutorials are available online to help the student develop mastery of outlining.

post mortem Essays
The Latin term post mortem means after death. When each of the first three papers are graded and returned to the student, the student-author will review and evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of the paper. The student will then prepare and submit a short essay describing the strengths and weaknesses and describing – in detail – adjustments to be made in preparing the next assigned paper. The post mortem essays should be typed in correct MLA format and sent to the instructor as an email attachment.

Summary Writing
For each assigned chapter of the required textbook, the student will prepare and submit a brief summary of the chapter’s main idea and main supporting details. Each summary should be written in a professional manner and should demonstrate a clear understanding of the assigned reading. Each summary should be sent to the instructor in the body of an email message (do not attach a separate document).

Do not skip chapters. If you fall behind, continue from wherever you stopped reading. It is important that students read straight through the book without skipping chapters. However, reading ahead is allowed and encouraged.

Discussion
Most weekly assignments will include a Discussion prompt in Canvas. The student is expected to make an initial contribution to the discussion on the day of the assignment, and the student is expected to respond to two or more students’ postings within 2-3 days.

Initially, there will be only one discussion forum for all students. Beginning in Week 1, however, the student will be working in a small group forum to provide more focus to the discussion. Students will be assigned to a small group to enhance the communication and sense of community.

“Education is when you read the fine print; experience is what you get when you don’t.”
- Pete Seeger, musician

Anticipated Class Schedule/Calendar

The course is set up by week. Summer session is six weeks in length.

Students should plan to log in to the course daily. Some assignments will be due on the day assigned. Other assignments will allow additional time. The student should anticipate 4-5 hours each day (online & offline).

Online Netiquette

• What is netiquette? Netiquette is internet manners, online etiquette, and digital etiquette all rolled into one word. Basically, netiquette is a set of rules for behaving properly online.

• Students are to comply with the following rules of netiquette: (1) identify yourself, (2) include a subject line, (3) avoid sarcasm, (4) respect others’ opinions and privacy, (5) acknowledge and return messages promptly, (6) copy with caution, (7) do not spam or junk mail, (8) be concise, and (9) use appropriate language.

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another’s work and recognize the important of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

• Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one’s own the writings (words, phrases, ideas, or organization) of others, without citing the source completely and correctly.
  • Failure to identify quoted words with quotation marks is plagiarism.
  • Failure to provide complete and accurate bibliographic information is plagiarism.
  • Incorrect paraphrasing (using words or sentence structure from the original source) is a form of plagiarism called fabrication.
  • Putting your own words in quotation marks and citing a published source is a form of plagiarism called fabrication.

• Students are expected to understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. There is no difference between accidental and intentional plagiarism.

• Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.
Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) plagiarism;
(b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment;
(c) communicating test information with another person during an examination;
(d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; and/or
(e) using a commercial term paper service.
