Course Description: ESL 52 focuses on articulation of English vowels and consonants and the development of basic English patterns of stress and intonation.

Required Texts: Focus on Pronunciation 2. By Lane L. 2005.

Attendance: You WILL be dropped after your 2nd absence. I will take role at the beginning of class. If you are late or leave 25 minutes of the class you will be considered absent.

Grading:

Homework	25%
Lab Homework	25%
Quizzes	25%
Final Exam	25%

Homework: The homework will be to complete the assigned units in the book on your own. The audio will be on reserve.

Lab Homework: You will be required to complete one hour a week in the language lab outside of class. You will work on the Pronunciation Power program.

Quizzes: There will be a quiz every other week in class starting in the second week. The quiz will be on the material from the previous class two weeks. If you are absent, you have one class session to make up the quiz. If you do not make up the quiz, you will get a 0 as your score.

Final Exam: The final exam will be given on the final class meeting, and the final will be conducted in the same classroom where the class meets during the semester. There are no make-ups for the final. If you cannot attend you must make arrangements in advance not after the fact! If you don't notify the teacher you cannot attend the final and do not show up to take the final, your exam score will be a 0.

Student Learning Outcome Students will produce comprehensible /-ed/ endings in regular verbs in the simple past tense.

Any student with a documented disability who may need education accommodations should notify me or the Disabled Student Programs and Services (DSP&S) office as soon as possible. DSP&S Health Sciences Building Room 2117 (760) 355-6312.
