Course Description

The standard course in freshman English. The course seeks to improve the student's ability to understand serious and complex prose and to improve the student's ability to write an exposition that is thoughtful and clear, including the production of a well-documented research paper. (CSU, UC)

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

- 1 Demonstrate mastery of research strategies, including appropriate use and correct documentation of research materials (ILO1, ILO4, ILO5)
- 2 Demonstrate mastery of pre-writing strategies, including brainstorming and outlining (ILO1, ILO2)
- 3 Develop an essay of multiple pages that effectively presents and strongly supports a thesis statement. (ILO1, ILO2)
- 4 Demonstrate command of rules regarding plagiarism and academic ethics. (ILO3)

Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

- 1. Read, analyze, and interpret a variety of written texts, including one single-author text.
- 2. Identify evidence, tone, purpose, and audience, and fallacies in a variety of written works.
- 3. Demonstrate a thorough understanding of the writing process, from development and drafting to revising and editing.
- 4. Demonstrate a command of varying writing patterns, such as comparison and contrast, definition, and argumentation.
- 5. Demonstrate an understanding of connotative and figurative language while writing for an academic audience.
- 6. Adapt writing strategies to the requirements of the writing situation (e.g., to essay exam or other timed writing, research writing, reflective writing)
- 7. Examine and analyze their own writing and that of other students with a view towards improving the effectiveness of the written work.
- 8. Develop text analysis and interpretation supported by citations, synthesized with the study and application of documentation styles and library skills (including electronic databases) to produce a research paper.
- 9. Demonstrate an understanding of the writing process by writing at least four essays using a variety of rhetorical modes, along with one research paper, composing a total of 8,000-10,000 words. Expository and argumentative papers constitute the bulk of student writing. However, revisions, summaries, journals, or other assigned writing may be used to meet the requirement.

10. Participate in a number of activities and areas of study as deemed appropriate by the instructor.

- If you stop attending class make sure to drop yourself from the class.
- Work is to be turned in on due date no late work is accepted.
- You are responsible for knowing and observing due dates for all assignments.

Late Work:

- No late work will be accepted under any circumstance.
 - o Note: Incomplete assignments automatically receive a zero.

Essay Grading Policy:

- Papers are graded on a percent of 100.
- Grade reflects the overall quality of the work turned in, how complete the work is and whether the instructions from the assignment were properly followed.
- A rubric will be used to grade each essay.
- Missing or unsatisfactory work will be scored "no credit." This is a 0 (F) and averaged into your grade.
- Late essays are not accepted.

Essays & Plagiarism:

- You will be writing a total of four essays.
- The final essay is an in-class essay.
- All essays will be turned in to "Safe Assign" (a plagiarism checker).
- So that your essay is not cited for plagiarism, the "Safe Assign" report should be 15% or less.
- Recycling essays (essays that were used for another course) will be considered plagiarism and receive a zero.

Journals:

- Journal entries will be written weekly.
- Be aware of journal entries due dates.
- Each journal entry must be a minimum of 200 words.
- Make sure to answer all questions asked of you in your journal entry.
- This assignment is designed for you to practice your writing skills. Think of it as a free write.

Discussion Forum:

- Every week you will participate in a discussion forum or blog.
- Your discussion forum post must be a minimum of 200 words.
- Make sure to answer all questions asked in the prompt.
- In your initial response make sure to be aware of academic language, paragraph structure, sentence structure, and grammar.
- You will be responsible for responding to two of your peers per post.

Attendance

- A student who fails to complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See the IVC General Catalog for details.
- Students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.

Online Classroom "Netiquette"

- What is netiquette? Netiquette is internet manners, online etiquette, and digital etiquette all rolled into one word.
- Netiquette rules to remember: (1) identify yourself, (2) include a subject line, (3) avoid sarcasm, (4) respect others' opinions and privacy, (5) acknowledge and return messages promptly, (6) copy with caution, (7) do not spam or junk mail, (8) be concise, (9) use appropriate language, (10) use appropriate emoticons (emotional icons) to help convey meaning, and (11) use appropriate intensifiers to help convey meaning [do not use ALL CAPS or multiple exclamation marks (!!!!)].

Academic Honesty

- Plagiarism is to take and present as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to correctly cite a source, you should ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials, or assisting others in using materials, which are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the IVC General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to the following: (a) plagiarism, (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment, (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination, (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment, and (e) use of a commercial term paper service.
