III. COURSE DESCRIPTION AND PROCEDURES: French 201/211 is a five-credit course designed to help students to acquire intermediate and advanced intermediate knowledge of French and Francophone language and culture. It is the third/fourth semester course in a four-semester sequence leading to an Associate of Arts degree in French. Successful completion of French 201 or its equivalent is required for enrollment. The course presents intermediate concepts of French and Francophone language and civilization. Students will increase their proficiency in listening, speaking, reading and writing in French. They will study French pronunciation, grammar and syntax in the context of real life situations and of discussions about French film. The films viewed in class are L'Auberge espagnole, Rue cases nègres, Persépolis, Indochine, Entre les murs et Le Placard. Class lectures and film screenings are conducted in conjunction with practice and discussions. Active participation in French is required of all students. Translation will not be used. Students should plan to dedicate two hours to study outside of class for each class session.

IV. SELECTED LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Students will be able to discuss the origin and genres of French cinema.
2. Students will be able to communicate verbally feelings, emotions and doubts using proper grammar and vocabulary.
3. Students will be able to discuss important aspects of culture in former French colonies.
4. Students will be able to analyse economic and social issues related to immigration in France.
5. Students will be able articulate ideas about real or hypothetical events in the present and the past.

V. ASSESSMENT: The course grade is calculated using the following percentages: Homework 15%: Homework is assigned daily to reinforce and assess assimilation of material that has been introduced in class. No credit will be given for assignments handed in late.

Compositions 15%

Midterm 25%: written midterm: October 11. There is no make-up.

Final exam 30%: written final: December 13. There is no make-up.

Participation 15%: The participation grade is given for preparation and performance of in-class activities. A French-only policy is in effect during class. Pay attention in class. For communication to take place, only one person may talk at a time. If you wish to speak, please raise your hand. Please ask any questions you may have (in French). Electronic devices, such as cell phones, headphones, laptops, cameras, etc. are not permitted in class. Please turn off and stow them away before class to avoid grades being lowered.

VI. WRITING GUIDE (for homework, compositions, quizzes and exams): 1. Type or use blue or black ink only. No credit will be given for work written in pencil. 2. Double space. 3. VIII. ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION: Regular class attendance is essential for success in this course. Therefore, students who are absent more than two consecutive times may be dropped from the class. In addition, since, logically, you cannot participate if you are absent, numerous unexcused absences will have a negative effect on your participation grade. To excuse an absence, there must be illness or a real emergency and students must submit a written note from a medical doctor, police officer or appropriate authority stating the reason for missing class, including the day and time of the absence. On the day of their return to class, students are responsible for handing in a written justification and any assignments they may have missed. A late arrival means a student arrived after his or her name was called by the instructor at the beginning of class. Students who arrive late are responsible for letting the instructor know of their arrival after class or during the break. Students whose schedule conflicts with class hours are urged to take the course another semester.

In order not to interrupt during class, students should not get up or leave the room. The bathroom is available before or after class. Students must inform the instructor if they have an emergency and need to go to the bathroom during class time.

No food or drink is permitted in the classroom. Students must dispose of food or drink before entering the classroom. Water is permitted.

IX. ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT: Students are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic conduct. Any work submitted for a grade (including homework, compositions, quizzes and exams) must be entirely your own. You are not allowed to share your work with other classmates, copy, get help from other students or do homework with another person. The use of translation software is not permitted. For the first case of academic misconduct, students involved will receive an “F”. For repeat offenses, an “F” will be given on the assignment and students will be referred to the Associate Dean of Students. The Associate Dean will decide if and when to return the student to class and may decide to sanction students with academic probation or expulsion. For further information about student rights and responsibilities, go to (<http://www.imperial.edu/index.php?pid=460>).

X. DISABILITY: Students with a documented disability of any kind who may need educational accommodations should notify the instructor and the Disabled Student Programs and Services office as soon as possible. The DSPPS office is located in the Health Sciences Building, room 2117. The telephone number is 355-6312.
