Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

Out-of-class: Three to five written assignments throughout the semester that may include one-to-two pages on topics such as 1) the difference between cultural relativism and ethnocentrism; 2) compare and contrast the Amish value system with mainstream American society; 3) bio-cultural relationship between the infectious disease of malaria and the cultural environment; and 4) global cultural diversity that may include similarities and differences between kinship and marriage.

Reading and Writing: Reading the textbook. Research using various sources, including the Internet, newspapers, and library sources. Out-of-class writing assignments (see above descriptions).

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

Students will be tested on assigned reading material, classroom discussions, multi-media presentations viewed in classroom sessions. The scheduled exams consist of true-false and multiple choice. Homework assignments and student classroom participation are also part of the assessment. Homework assignments may be from our textbook and classroom sessions, as well as from the Internet, and will require additional research and writing. Students must take the final exam to receive a final grade.

Three exams (which include the final exam) will be given during the semester with each exam consisting of 50 points. The semester will be based on an accumulation of points:

Exams: 50 points each (3 exams) Quizzes: 10 points each (3 quizzes) Homework assignments: 20 points

200 – 180 points	Α
179 – 160	В
159 - 140	С
139 - 120	D
119 – 0	F

Make-up Exam: A Make-up Exam many be given with the instructor's discretion and may consist of essays only. The Make-up Exam will be given at the end of the semester during Finals Week. No more than one Make-up Exam is allowed during the semester.

Attendance

A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.

- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

Classroom Etiquette

- Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class, unless otherwise directed by the instructor. Consider: specifics for your class/program
- Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed._
- Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.
- Disrespectful or disruptive behavior toward the instructor or fellow students will not be tolerated.
- Tardiness is disruptive, and if necessary, the instructor shall institute a tardiness penalty of three points for each late arrival in the classroom. Penalty points are cumulative and will reduce the overall point accumulation and may result in a lower grade.
- Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, no one who is not enrolled in the class may attend, including children.

Academic Honesty

- Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another's work and recognize the important of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.
- There are many forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violation and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable conduct.
- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to 'cite a source' correctly, you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General School Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.
