5. Owl Purdue Writing Lab: <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/>

Required materials:

1. Strong 3-ring binder – 1 ½ “ with dividers – for development of course portfolio
2. Writing/reading/study instruments; pens, highlighters, glue sticks... a good college dictionary is recommended.

Your keys to success (a fast seven..):

1. Attendance: You are expected to attend and participate in each class meeting. It's critical that you arrive on time, prepared and ready to learn. Students will be DROPPED after 2nd absence or fourth tardy (students dropped for excessive absences after the last day to drop with a 'W' will receive an 'F' for the course.)
2. Homework and Classwork: You will raise your skill levels (and your grade!) by completing all assigned work. All writing exercises, reading responses, journal entries are directed towards meeting the state standards. You are responsible for turning in all homework at the beginning of each class. In class assignments must be completed with the required time-frames. Please refer to new "études" online assignments on a weekly basis. No late work will be accepted.
3. Writing journals: By keeping track of your writing assignments, you will be able to build on your ideas and reinforce your skills. The journal will prove to be an important learning tool. Notes taken in class and specific informational charts pasted to your pages will help you develop through the course of the semester (and information registered will come in handy on open-note quizzes!)
4. Participation: Each class will offer specific activities that will invoke your participation: classroom discussions, partner talk, peer review, jigsaw analysis... Don't hesitate to share. Get involved. Your participation is required.
5. Writing Projects: Throughout the course of the semester there will be specific papers that will be assigned for specific purposes and specific due dates. Late work will be penalized up to 50 per cent.
6. Blackboard: The Tortilla Curtain Project Read and respond online to T.C. Boyle's Tortilla Curtain. Keep your eye out for online discussion board assignments. Develop your patterns of development. Build up your grade with multiple choice quizzes. All due dates are final.
7. Aplia: Stay up on your assignments according to the schedule in your syllabus. Quiz results will be reviewed and graded at the end of each week. (Absolutely no late work will be accepted!)
8. Facebook – IVC Friends of the Earth: Stay tuned for daily homework assignments and extra credit opportunities. A great way to raise your grade and skill levels!

All student work is expected to meet the standards of course. Written work will be graded upon sentence construction, language usage, paragraph development, organization, critical thinking skills, etc. Blackboard, Blog, and Wiki work will be expected to meet the same standards – and in addition, present a neat, professional, organized look (review with tutor is encouraged.)

All late work is subject to 50 percent penalty in points earned.

Your instructor reserves the right to add and subtract from work assigned in the syllabus and on Blackboard. Keep your eyes open for exciting extra credit opportunities on Facebook and in the IVC Friends of the Earth Borderline Journal.

Simple Rules:

1. Be accountable! Any critical emergencies that may prevent you from attending class should be communicated through e-mail or phone number listed above. Work performed in class will be critical to your grade.
2. Do your own work! No one may type or edit your papers for you. Help and support is available in the Jean Raulston Reading/Writing Lab. Be careful. The penalty for plagiarism involves dismissal from the class.
3. Absolutely no food or drink in the class, including bottled water, as per college policy.
4. Be respectful to others: No cell phones, beepers, walkmans, or other interruptions that take away from the learning of others.
5. Don't miss class. Be on time. Many in-class activities for credit can not and will not be repeated.

MEASURABLE COURSE OBJECTIVES AND MINIMUM STANDARDS FOR GRADE OF "C":

Student will be able to:

1. Student will demonstrate the use of discovery techniques in writing and interpret readings, thereby developing his/her own point of view for further writing.
2. Student will show supporting details in his/her own writing as well as identify and evaluate supporting details in the writing of others.
3. Student will apply the principles of essay structure, focusing on introduction-body conclusion, thesis statement, rhetorical modes, and will be able to identify, analyze, and apply the principles of essay coherence in others' and own writing.
4. Student will identify logical fallacies and apply the principles of the nature of evidence, as well as identify and analyze, essay coherence, especially in relation to tone, purpose, and audience.
5. Student will develop text interpretation supported by citations, synthesized with the study and application of research documentation and library skills to produce a research paper.
6. Student will practice connotative and figurative language, while writing for an academic audience requiring carefully edited sentences.
7. Student will write a series of at least 4 essays, incorporating the rhetorical modes, along with a persuasive research paper, composing a total of 8,000-10,000 words. Expository and argumentative papers constitute the bulk of student writing.
However, revisions, summaries; journals or other assigned writing may be used to meet the requirement.
8. Student will participate in a number of activities and areas of study as deemed appropriate by the instructor.

Final Grade Determination:

To achieve a passing grade, students must write with clarity and purpose on the final essay exam. Here students are afforded the opportunity to present the writing and critical thinking techniques taught throughout the semester. Students who lack effective sentence and paragraph development skills will fail the exam, and thus, the course.

Jay’s Appendix for finding online help:

Help with Log-in on Blackboard

Student can login by visiting: <http://imperial.blackboard.com>

For username, use the first part of your student email address (e.g. jdoe2)

For password, use your WebSTAR PIN (which should automatically be synced when updated via WebSTAR)

If you do not know student email address, these two locations can help you find out that information: <https://www.imperial.edu/students/student-email-lookup/> (Does not require additional login, but will only work if the student is registered for 0.5 or more units for the current semester)

<https://my.imperial.edu/student-email> (Does require additional login to the Student Portal, but will work regardless of whether or not the student is registered for any classes)

Getting Additional Blackboard Help for Students

There is also training material available for students:

For Students - <http://ondemand.blackboard.com/students.htm>

How to Log-in to MySkillstutor:

Instructions for myskillstutor:

1. Log onto Diana Hacker (remember the 's' in skills)
2. User Name – enter student G#
3. Password – enter student G#
4. Site – enter imperial01 (remember to use a zero, not an 'o')
5. If you made it this far – Great! Now the fun begins.
6. Click on to the writing link.
7. Your assignments should appear on the screen for you – sentence structure

To begin, you must take sentence structure pretest. Don't worry about this score, but you have to take this test in order to enter the required exercises. Then proceed. I think there are like 14 quizzes. You will need 80 percent or higher to have the grade count. Please feel free to take each quiz as many times as needed (the pretest, however, will only allow you in just once!)

How to Visit Planet Mexicali:

Please follow the following instructions to practice on planetmexicali: For Extra Credit (ten points)

- 6.5 Click on continue
7. Here on Grammar Exercise Page – scroll all the way down: at the bottom,
Click on Basic Grammar (E-ex B1-7 – E-ex B4-1)
8. Here In right hand column – click on to E-ex B1-7: all parts of speech
9. Complete the exercises. Your score will be forwarded into my gradebook.

How to get your Blog on:

This semester, you will be required to maintain a writer's blog throughout the course of the semester.

FIVE TIMES, I will ask you to convert in-class writing , Blackboard work, or parts of your essays into blog posts.

Here is how it should look. Take a look at the following models to create your own:

1. Jay's Museum of College Writing:
http://planetmexicali.typepad.com/jays_museum_of_college_wr/
2. Teresa , Queen of Blog: <http://teresaqueenofblog.blogspot.mx/>
3. Pilar's Blog of the Innocents: <http://pzcarrasco.blogspot.mx/>

Here is how you get started.

1. Create a blog on blogspot.com – It's FREE, It's EAZY, and this way there will be plenty of people around to help you or share new and exciting techniques. In fact, I expect you to teach me a few things. Let's work together. I mean, we are Friends of the Earth.

- a. Here is a website with a 20-step plan to get you started:
<http://www.wikihow.com/Start-a-Blog-on-Blogger>

(Don't Forget: You will have to first Create a Google Account before you can Create a Blogger Account.)

- b. Here is a site on youtube that will give you a strong visual:
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=n6PuHFpfscA&feature=sharecontrol>

This video goes about 17 minutes. It's kind of slow, but this Mandy, the author of the video ,definitely has a passion for blogging.

2. Here are some JAY'S TIPS:

- a. Before you get CRAZY , start with a Blogger Template to get started. You can always change it later. Pilar chose Ethereal, and Teresa chose Watermark. It made for easy going.
- b. Once you start on your first post – it should be a brief introduction to who you are and what your are about – you will need to find a way to keep it at the top of your page.

This is what you have to do: you need to change the date of publication to like the year 2024. In this way, it will always be considered the latest blog published; therefore, it will always appear at the top of your page.

Step 1

Navigate to your blog's Overview page by signing in to Blogger and choosing your blog. Click "Posts" in the navigation pane on the left side of the window.

Step 2

Click on the post you want to stick at the top of the page. Click "Published on" on the right side of the window to change the date.

Step 3

Repeatedly click the right side arrow next to the month and year. Continue clicking the arrow until the date displayed is at least a few years in the future.

Step 4

Choose a day on the monthly calendar and click "Done" under the calendar. Click "Update" at the top of the blog and click "Close." Go to your blog to ensure the post you wanted is at the top.

3. Here is something I discovered this year to enhance the look of my blog: Flickr.com
- a. develop a library of images
- b. learn to upload your images by copying the embed code (I'll teach you this in class.

4. Here is what you need to worry about:

1. First, your writing – rough draft - for the post will be checked and graded in class.
2. Your need to submit your post to be graded on blackboard.
3. Your post from Blackboard can be copied and customized for presentation on Blogger.
4. At the midterm exam, I will look at your Blogger blog and review at least five assigned posts.

5. All posts must meet deadlines for full credit.
