Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

Course Overview: A survey of the developments in art in painting, sculpture, architecture, and the minor arts from the Renaissance to contemporary times.

This is a course in visual art appreciation and history for the student with little or no knowledge of art history. The emphasis will be on the so-called plastic arts (painting, works on paper, and sculpture) as well as on architecture. We will cover the stylistic periods in art from before the Renaissance (about 1300 A.D.) to Modern art. The text and the bulk of the material in the class are presented in chronological order. The content is strongly based on the required textbook.

There are numerous discussions, quizzes, as well as Midterm and Final exams, and an opinion essay.

Out of Class Assignments: Students are responsible for reading the chapters in the textbook prior to lectures and for a 600-900 word opinion essay.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

Student's final grades will be assessed according to the number of points earned through completion of assignments, exams, quizzes. Statistics show that students who have access to the textbook earn a better grade than those who do not.

Midterm, Essay, and Final are each 30% of your grade. Quizzes total 10%. There is no extra credit in this course. If you miss an assessment, you must contact the instructor immediately and take the test before the next class meeting. This may not be possible during a fast-moving Winter Session course. You may not take a quiz, which was meant to prepare you for either the Midterm or the Final, after you've taken the Midterm or the Final. Quizzes are meant to prepare you for the two most important assessments.

About the essay:

Students are required to complete a 600-900 word opinion essay, meeting specific requirements outlined in the assignment handout. It will be submitted to a plagiarism service on Blackboard.

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another's work and recognize the important of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.
