Course Description

This course is designed to provide opportunities for the students in Psychology, Human Relations, and Alcohol and Drug Studies to gain experience under the supervised field placements such as those involving mental health, child development, youth corrections, welfare, homes for elders or neglected, youth recreation, rehabilitation clients, Center for Family Solution, domestic violence counseling groups, centers for people with limitations, and educational settings.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

Develop field placement activity (IL01, IL02, IL03)

Participate in field placement activity (IL01, IL03)

Understand responsibilities of fieldwork (IL0, IL02, IL03)

Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

Verify that he or she has worked at least 100 hours at his or her fieldwork site.

Present a journal that records and analyzes his or her thoughts and reactions to the fieldwork assignment at midterm and again before the final examination. The journal will demonstrate that the student has made an entry after each day of service at the assignment.

Recognize and relate fieldwork responsibilities to the instructor and demonstrate his understanding of his role at the fieldwork agency or institution.

Present a weekly oral report of what he or she is doing and how he or she is doing at his fieldwork, subject to the restraints of confidentiality placed on him or her by the fieldwork supervisor.

Finishing up the Internship

Class Participation:

Attending every class session is expected. Arriving tardy, leaving early or stepping outside during lecture will be noted and count against class participation. Please schedule all appointments outside of class time. At the instructor's discretion, a student may be dropped after 3 absences. However, if you decide not to continue with this course, you are responsible for dropping the class by the drop date, in-class assignments will count toward class participation points.

Late Work:

Late work will not be accepted

Assignments will not be accepted via-e-mail and computer related issues are not considered and excuse for late work,

Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

Attendance

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

Classroom Etiquette

- Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class, unless otherwise directed by the instructor.
- Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed by the instructor.
- Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.
- Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, no one who is not enrolled in the class may attend, including children.

Online Netiquette

- What is netiquette? Netiquette is internet manners, online etiquette, and digital etiquette all rolled into one word. Basically, netiquette is a set of rules for behaving properly online.
- Students are to comply with the following rules of netiquette: (1) identify yourself, (2) include a subject line, (3) avoid sarcasm, (4) respect others' opinions and privacy, (5) acknowledge and return messages promptly, (6) copy with caution, (7) do not spam or junk mail, (8) be concise, (9) use appropriate language, (10) use appropriate emoticons (emotional icons) to help convey meaning, and (11) use appropriate intensifiers to help convey meaning [do not use ALL CAPS or multiple exclamation marks (!!!!)].

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another's work and recognize the important of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.
