Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

It is the student's responsibility to locate a work experience site. You will be volunteering at your site for 100 hours during the semester. You must have your site work hours, forms filled BOTH by the supervisor and journal completed two weeks before finals week. Anyone who is not involved in their placement three weeks after school starts may be dropped from the class. This should include any back ground check and finger print process. Your professionalism regarding promptness, reliability, appropriate dress, will be required. This includes being neat and clean, drug and alcohol free, and no clothing gender, racial, drug, alcohol, or gang bias. Your presentation at your site is a reflection of Imperial Valley College and will impact your reputation as a professional. Choosing the site for internship has to be approved by the instructor and Director of Addiction Disorder Studies.

Class Participation:

Attending every class session is expected. Arriving tardy, leaving early or stepping outside during lecture will be noted and count against class participation. Please schedule all appointments outside of class time. At the instructor's discretion, a student may be dropped with unrealistic absences. If you decide not to continue with this course, you are responsible for dropping the class by the drop date, in-class assignments will count toward class participation points. This class is an hour long so timing is of an essence.

Late Work:

Late work will not be accepted

Assignments will not be accepted via-e-mail and computer related issues are not considered and excuse for late work,

Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

=100 Total Points

Attendance

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student’s status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student’s responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as ‘excused’ absences.

Classroom Etiquette

- Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class, unless otherwise directed by the instructor.
- Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed by the instructor.
- Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.

- Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, no one who is not enrolled in the class may attend, including children.

Online Netiquette

- What is netiquette? Netiquette is internet manners, online etiquette, and digital etiquette all rolled into one word. Basically, netiquette is a set of rules for behaving properly online.
- Students are to comply with the following rules of netiquette:
  - (1) Identify yourself,
  - (2) Include a subject line,
  - (3) Avoid sarcasm,
  - (4) Respect others' opinions and privacy,
  - (5) Acknowledge and return messages promptly,
  - (6) Copy with caution,
  - (7) Do not spam or junk mail,
  - (8) Be concise,
  - (9) Use appropriate language,
  - (10) Use appropriate emoticons (emotional icons) to help convey meaning, and
  - (11) Use appropriate intensifiers to help convey meaning [do not use ALL CAPS or multiple exclamation marks (!!!!)].

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another's work and recognize the important of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment ; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.

Additional Student Services

Imperial Valley College offers various services in support of student success. The following are some of the services available for students. Please speak to your instructor about additional services which may be available.

- Blackboard Support Site. The Blackboard Support Site provides a variety of support channels available to students 24 hours per day.
- Learning Services. There are several learning labs on campus to assist students through the use of computers and tutors. Please consult your Campus Map for the Math Lab; Reading, Writing & Language Labs; and the Study Skills Center.
