Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.

- The Student Equity Program strives to improve Imperial Valley College's success outcomes, particularly for students who have been historically underrepresented and underserved. The college identifies strategies to monitor and address equity issues, making efforts to mitigate any disproportionate impact on student success and achievement. Our institutional data provides insight surrounding student populations who historically, are not fully represented. Student Equity addresses disparities and/or disproportionate impact in student success across disaggregated student equity groups including gender, ethnicity, disability status, financial need, Veterans, foster youth, homelessness, and formerly incarcerated students. The Student Equity Program provides direct supportive services to empower students experiencing insecurities related to food, housing, transportation, textbooks, and shower access. We recognize that students who struggle meeting their basic needs are also at an academic and economic disadvantage, creating barriers to academic success and wellness. We strive to remove barriers that affect IVC students' access to education, degree and certificate completion, successful completion of developmental math and English courses, and the ability to transfer to a university. Contact: 760.355.5736 or 760.355.5733 Building 100.
- The Student Equity Program also houses IVC's Homeless Liaison, who provides direct services, campus, and community referrals to students experiencing homelessness as defined by the McKinney-Vento Act. Contact: 760.355.5736 Building 100.

Local Government Meeting

Paper Guidelines

Due April 29, 2020

Assignment:

Write a 2 page, double-spaced report, in MLA format, of your first-hand observations of a local government meeting.

Examples of appropriate governmental bodies include:

- ❖ a city council/commission meeting
- ❖ a meeting of the county commissioners court
- ❖ a zoning or planning commission meeting
- ❖ a school board meeting
- ❖ a meeting of the board of regents of a public university or community college
- ❖ a meeting of the hospital district
- ❖ a meeting of the water district

The following meetings are not appropriate:

- ❖ Any meeting that was held prior to February 18, 2020

If you have any questions about a meeting you would like to attend, please ask me before you attend.

Plan ahead. Many local government meetings occur only once or twice a month. You can usually find information about local meetings in your local newspaper or on their website. You can also call a local government and find out when the meetings are and where they are held.

The ideal report includes a record of all verbal and nonverbal interactions among all persons present, does not have spelling or grammatical errors, and includes among others, the following items:

- the time, date, and place of your fieldwork
- A description of the physical layout of the room or meeting place and the presence of any political symbols such as flags, seals, etc.
- information on all formal decisions and the procedures, if any, that were followed
- A summary of all statements made by the speakers, noting their attitude or ideology and their tone (i.e., formal, hostile, liberal, conservative, etc.)
- information on the speakers' personal behaviors and styles (appearance, age, race, and gender)
- a summary of any actions taken and the procedures, if any, that were followed to reach a decision
- an analysis of the range of decisions made, the kind of language used, references to political groups, the requirements of the law, or to other governmental bodies, and the appearance of consensus or discord
- a comparison of the observation to class material and related resources
- a comparison of the different governmental bodies observed by the group members (this is REAL political science)
- a general critique of the observed activity's overall political or policy implications (for example: Did the observed officials represent or act on behalf of the public or on behalf of a particular group? Did they consider the speaker's presentation or did they ignore it? etc.)

Group Project Presentation Guidelines

Due May 27, 2020

Group: 4-5 people

Topic:

Each group will be required to create a campaign. Your campaign's focus is to promote an issue that is important to the development of the Imperial Valley. You are required to create a campaign ad, along with a campaign speech, to persuade your audience on the issue at hand. Each member of your group will be required to participate. Your group will be presenting the campaign to the class. Remember, this is a group presentation; everyone involved will receive the same grade. It is your responsibility to make sure you make adequate arrangements to meet and work on your presentation for the best grade possible.

Along with your campaign presentation, each group will hand in a one page, double spaced outline of their research on the topic as well as a brief reflection on why their topic of choice is important to the Imperial Valley.
