Criminal Law Tenth Edition Joel Samaha

Room: 203

COURS DESCRIPTION

This course seeks to enable you to identify the historical sources of United States criminal laws; demonstrate knowledge of the United States Constitution and other key documents of the criminal justice system; analyze and explain criminal appellate cases; compare and contrast the classifications of criminal laws. Crimes against persons, property, and government will also be discussed. As the college catalogue suggests, a good command of English is important to success in this course because we will have to master the legal terminology which defines the legal system. Your success will be determined by testing and by an case study assignment as discussed below.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Students will be able to:

- 1. Identify the historical sources of United States criminal laws.
- 2. Demonstrate knowledge of the United States Constitution and other key documents of the criminal justice system.
- 3. Analyze and explain criminal appellate cases.
- 4. Compare and contrast the classifications of criminal law.

Failure to take a quiz or exam will result in a zero for that quiz or exam unless prior approval is given by the instructor. You must communicate with your instructor any problems or difficulties that you are having with the course.

ATTENDANCE: One goal of this course is to instill a work ethic needed to be a successful employee. Like having a job, students are expected to attend class, show up on time, and not leave early. Students will be allowed six absences from class. On the seventh absence, the student will be dropped from the class. Being late or leaving early will count as half an absence. Missing more than half a class session will count as a full absence. Students may be dropped from the class if they miss three class sessions in a row. However, it is the students responsibility to withdraw or drop accordingly as is not the responsibility of the instructor.

ACADEMIC ETHICS: Cheating is defined as copying answers from another student on an exam or assignment, allowing another student to copy answers from you, turning in work as your own that someone else did for you, working with another student on an assignment without the instructor's express consent, or turning in a writing assignment that uses another's words or ideas without crediting the source of the words or ideas.

CHEATING WILL NOT BE TOLERATED. Anyone caught cheating will get a zero for the assignment or exam and may be dropped from the class with the grade of F.

DSP&S: Any student with a documented disability who may need educational accommodations should notify the instructor or the Disabled Student Programs and Services Office. (Room 2117, Health Sciences Building; Phone: (760) 355-6312)
