480-539 pts	B
420-479 pts	C
360-419 pts	D
Below 359	F

Three Exams (150 pts.)

There will be three exams given throughout the semester. The first exam will cover the first five chapters (Chapters 1-5). The second exam will cover the next five chapters (6-10). The third exam will cover the last five chapters (11-15)). A study guide will be distributed every week and we will review as a class before each exam. The exams will be multiple-choice. Please bring in #2 pencil and scantron to each examination

Make-up examinations will be accommodated provided they are taken within one week of the scheduled examination and are pre-approved by the instructor. If approved, the make-up exam will be one grade lower.

Quizzes (150 pts)

There will be a total of 15 quizzes during the semester. These quizzes will cover important terms, topics, and events, for each chapter. Quizzes will be given promptly at the beginning of class so please be here on time. The quizzes will serve as a study guide for each chapter. You cannot make up any quiz, no exceptions (only at my discretion)!

Thought Papers (75 pts)

There will be a total of three (3) essays due at various intervals during the semester. Each essay will be worth 25 points each. These essays will be based on the readings, class material, and class discussions. The main focus of the essays is for you to learn how think critically about sociology. Some you will only have to answer one question; some may have to choose between more than one. They are to be at least two (2) pages in length. These assignments shall be submitted at the beginning of the class for which they are due (date will be posted on your schedule of assignments). Late papers may be submitted, however, they will receive a 10 point reduction in points with each week they are late (1 week = 10 pts off, 2 weeks = 20 points off, etc). E-papers may be accepted with prior approval from the instructor; however, they must be submitted prior to the starting time of the class session on the day they are due. E-papers are subject to the same rules regarding lateness as regular papers.

Current Events (150 pts)

There will be a total of 15 current events assigned throughout the semester. One for each chapter assigned. These papers will be assigned to you or to a group and you get to pick the question you wish to address. Some may only have one question; some may have more than one. They are to be at least one page in length. These assignments shall be submitted at the beginning of the class for which they are due (date will be posted on your schedule of assignments) or at the end of class if assigned in a group. Late papers may be submitted, however, they will receive an increasing 10 point reduction in points with each week they are late (1 week = 10 points, 2 weeks = 20 point, etc). E-papers may be accepted with prior approval from the instructor; however, they must be submitted prior to the starting time of the class session on the day they are due. E-papers are subject to the same rules regarding lateness as regular papers.

Student Learning Outcome Project (75 pts)

In order to demonstrate your communication skills, you will be required to write a short paper (4 pages) using three (3) research sources. This paper may be about any sociology topic of your choosing. More information will be given at a later date.

Attendance

The IVC General Catalog states:

"Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students enrolled. Instructors are expected to take a student's attendance record into account in computing grades. A student may be excluded from further attendance in a class during any semester when absences after the close of registration have exceeded the number of class hours which the class meets per week."

Please NO FOOD! Unless otherwise told. Please turn Cell Phones off or at the very least put them on vibrate. All electronic devices (computers, mp3's, pda's, ect) are to be turned off during class.

Electronic Devices

In this class we will learn about technology as it relates to sociology. However, in class we will use technology in a more traditional way. I-pods, gaming devices, or otherwise music/gaming devices are best left at home or out of sight. Acceptable electronic devices are cell phones (provided they are off or left on vibrate if needed) and computers (laptops, I-Pads, or tablets) as long they are being used for the sole purpose of the class.

Academic Dishonesty

Imperial Valley College's regulations regarding cheating and plagiarism are clear:

"If cheating or plagiarism is discovered, while this behavior will not get you kicked out of the class or expelled from college, you will fail that assignment and you will be reported to IVC's disciplinary officer"

The last day to drop with a "W" is November 09, 2013.

Special Accommodations

Any student with a documented disability who may need educational accommodations should notify the instructor or the Disabled Student Programs and Services (DSP&S) office as soon as possible.
