COURSE DESCRIPTION

The course will cover the philosophy of Administration of Justice in America, and identify its various subsystems. It will examine the roles and role expectations of criminal justice agents and their interrelationship in society. The concepts of crime causations, punishment and rehabilitation are introduced. The basic course provides a better understanding of the criminal justice system and orients the student to career opportunities. Ethics, education and training for professionalism in the system are discussed.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES (SLOs)

Course SLOs: Course Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs) are written statements that represent faculty and departmental learning goals for students. During this course, students will:

	Identify the Objectives of the Justice System and the Role of Criminal Justice Personnel. (ILO4, ILO5).
Outcome 2:	Describe the Laws of Arrest including Felonies and Misdemeanors. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3, ILO4)
Outcome 3:	Identify the Roles, History and Organization of Law Enforcement in the U.S. (ILO4, ILO5)

Institutional SLOs: Institutional Student Learning Outcomes (ISLOs) are areas of learning that students, faculty, staff, and administrators work toward and assess on a regular basis. After successful completion of a program or degree at Imperial Valley College, students are expected to have measurable improvement in the following areas: ISLO1 - Communication Skills, ISLO2 - Critical Thinking Skills, ISLO3 - Personal Responsibility, ISLO4 - Information Literacy, and ISLO5 - Global Awareness.

AJ 106 Principles and Procedures of the Justice System will provide students with learning opportunities to improve in all five of the Institutional Student Learning Outcomes.

OBJECTIVES FOR THE COURSE

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to demonstrate an understanding of the following course objectives:

Objective 1	Summarize the evolution of the Administration of Justice System.
Objective 2	Demonstrate an awareness of the objectives of the system, the crime problem and role expectations of criminal justice personnel.
Objective 3	Distinguish the system's responsibilities to the community, social implications of crime and general concepts in crime causation.
Objective 4	Compare and contract various agencies, their organizational structures and develop an appreciation of the education, training and professionalism in the justice system.
Objective 5	Demonstrate an understanding of basic legal terms, the organization and concepts of the United States court system and identify the roles, functions and relationships of persons within the court system.
Objective 6	Summarize the history, structure and operation of the American correctional system.
Objective 7	Compare and contrast the juvenile justice system and its interrelationships with the criminal justice system.

TEXTBOOKS

The following textbook is required for this course:

Schmalleger, Frank (2013). Criminal Justice Today (12th/e). Pearson Education. ISBN:9780132740005

WEBSITE: pearsonhighered.com: powerpoints, and other material of the book.

This is your main textbook for the course. The questions contained in the exams will come from this book so read and study it carefully. This textbook takes an in-depth look at the procedures of Administration of Justice.

ASSIGNMENTS

There will be five class assignments, worth 15 points. You will be notified one week in advance. NO LATE WORK ACCEPTED.

PLEASE NOTE: Class participation is vital to this course. Students are expected to do the week's reading prior to class and to be prepared to discuss the assigned cases in class.

Students will be randomly called upon to discuss issues and topics related to the chapter. Any student who is not prepared will lose points for that day's participation.

ATTENDANCE: One goal of this course is to instill a work ethic needed to be a successful employee. Like having a job, students are expected to attend class, show up on time, and not leave early. Students will be allowed three absences from class. On the fourth absence, the student will be dropped from the class. Being late or leaving early will count as one-third of an absence. Missing more than half a class session will count as a full absence. Students will also be dropped from the class if they miss two class sessions in a row. There will be no exceptions to this policy.

EXAMS

There are four exams for this course, three chapter exams and the final exam, each worth 100 points. The exams must be taken as scheduled unless prior approval has been obtained from the instructor. The exams will be given as follows:

SCHEDULE OF EXAMS
Exams	September 18, 2013
	October 9, 2013
	November 6, 2013
Final Exam (COMPREHENSIVE)	December 2, 2013

GRADES

How much you learn in the course, as well as your final grade, depends on the effort you put into the readings and assignments. There are a total of 16 weeks with a total of 500 points available. Grades will be assigned on the basis of the following weights:

POSSIBLE POINTS	FINAL GRADES
Assignments 75 points Participation 25 points Exams 400 points Total 500 points	90 -100 % = A 80 - 89 % = B 70 - 79% = C 60 - 69 % = D Less than 60% = F

PLAGIARISM and CHEATING

Plagiarism is to take and present as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials.

Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials, or assisting others in using materials, which are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question, such as:

- copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment;
- communicating test information with another person during an examination;
- allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment, including the use of a commercial term paper service.

Basically, you cannot copy anything directly from any source, including your textbooks or the Internet, unless you are using a quotation. You must note the book or article or website and page number from the source of your quote. If you paraphrase something, you must also cite the source of your information. If cheating or plagiarism is discovered, the assignment will be given "0" points. Repeated violations will be reported to IVC Administration

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE COURSE

It is the responsibility of the student to officially withdraw from the course through the Office of Admissions and Records. If you stop actively participating in the course, it does not mean the instructor will drop you, but she can at her discretion. The last day to drop the course with a "W" is November 9, 2013. You must officially drop the course yourself before the deadline or you will receive a grade on your official transcript.

STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Students have the right to experience a positive learning environment; students who disrupt that environment can be asked to leave the course. Faculty and students also have the right of due process. For further information regarding student rights and responsibilities please refer to the IVC General Catalog.

DISABLED STUDENT PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

Any student with a documented disability who may need educational accommodations should notify the instructor or the Disabled Student Programs and Services (DSP&S) office as soon as possible. The DSP&S office is located in Room 2117, telephone 760-355-6312.
