Course Description

This class should be taken with another course which requires the use of a computer. Its purpose is to provide computer software (word processors, spreadsheets, data bases, accounting packages, programming interpreters, etc.) for the primary course. There are no formal presentations by an instructor and no textbook is required. It is not intended to be an independent course and the lab course may be taken up to three times for credit. Assistance will be available to help you with your class exercises. Please have your class notes and instructions from your professor. Do not rely on the staff to teach class material.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon the completion of this course, the student will be able to:
Take responsibility for completing lab hours required.

Course Objectives

A hands-on lab class which supports those courses requiring computer completed assignments. The student may be involved using word processing, programming, integrated software programs or decision support applications. (CSU)

Textbooks & Other Resources or Links

No textbook required

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

You will be assigned a grade of credit (CR) or no-credit (NCR). A CR grade requires a minimum of 45 academic hours, 40 clock hours. Lab time less than 40 clock hours is assigned a NCR grade.

For your information, IVC does not calculate the CR/NCR grades into GPA. The units are used to meet the 60 degree-applicable units for graduation.

If your plans change and you decide not to continue in this class please obtain and fill out a drop card in the administration office or go to Webstar.

Attendance

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

Classroom Etiquette

- Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class unless otherwise directed by the instructor. Consider: specifics for your class/program
- Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed.
- Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.
- Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, no one who is not enrolled in the class may attend, including children.

Academic Honesty

- Plagiarism is to take and present as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to correctly 'cite a source', you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials, or assisting others in using materials, which are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General School Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment ;(c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment, (e) use of a commercial term paper service
