ART 100: COURSE DESCRIPTION - DR. NANNETTE KELLY

Art History is a visual course and is based almost entirely on slide lectures, discussions, and videos. It is an introductory course, designed to promote deeper appreciation of art in general, and of ancient and medieval art in particular. Because we will be looking at art almost constantly, the class should be enjoyable as well as educational. Involvement, participation, and good attendance are essential for success in this course. Your rewards for this will not only be three units, but hopefully, a deeper connection with the history of human expression and a new way of looking at the visual world.

Remember, as Ad Reinhart said: "Looking is not as easy as it looks".

ANTICIPATED CLASS OUTLINE/SCHEDULE

The following Course Outline and Schedule is approximate and is subject to change at the discretion of the instructor. It is simply to be used as a general guideline and to help you keep up with your reading.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS

This is primarily a lecture course. The requirements of the course include keeping up with the reading in the textbook, being prepared to take Pop Quizzes, and studying and keeping up with the course material in order to be prepared to take the Midterm and the Final, as well as attending and participating in the class meetings. You will be required to keep up with the reading and be prepared to recognize and identify assigned works of art for the quizzes, midterm, and final.

Several Pop Quizzes will be given throughout the semester. Pop Quizzes will be based on identifying works of art which have been assigned ahead of time. You will need to study the works of art and be prepared to identify them when a Pop Quiz is given. There will be no warning given for the Pop Quizzes, so you will need to keep up with your ability to recognize and identify works of art.

A study guide will be given for both the Midterm and the Final. You will have at least two weeks' notice for both the Midterm and the Final. Both of these tests will have a slide identification section (recognition of works of art) and a multiple choice section.
*Cheating and plagiarism are prohibited in this class and will result in serious consequences. (See below section on cheating and plagiarism).

COURSE GRADING

- One Midterm - worth $25 \%$ of the overall course grade.
- One Final Exam - worth $25 \%$ of the overall course grade. (There is no make-up for the final).
- Pop Quizzes - together worth $25 \%$ of the overall course grade. (There are no make-ups for quizzes).
- Participation and Attendance - worth $25 \%$ of the overall course grade.
- There will also be an opportunity to earn extra credit by attending an art museum and writing a museum report (to be discussed later). There will be a possible 10 points for extra credit.

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION

Any more than three absences will begin to lower your grade and may cause you to be dropped from the class. Everyone has three free absences.
Participation means staying awake and not engaging in other activities during the class sessions (reading, using technology, talking, etc.). It also means contributing meaningful questions and comments during class.

Arriving to class late or leaving early on an excessive basis will impact your participation/attendance grade. If you need to leave early please inform me at the beginning of class.

ATTENDANCE

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

CLASSROOM ETIQUETTE

- Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class unless otherwise directed by the instructor.
- Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception.
- Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.
- Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, no one who is not enrolled in the class may attend, including children.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

- Plagiarism is to take and present as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to correctly 'cite a source', you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials, which are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General School Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment ;(c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment, (e) use of a commercial term paper service.
