Course Description

Preparation for ENGL 110. The course seeks to facilitate the student's mastery of the short essay at the college level. The course follows in sequence from ENGL 008 (ENGL 098). (Nontransferable, nondegree applicable)

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

- 1. Compose a multi-paragraph essay that responds to an essay prompt with a clear controlling idea or thesis statement. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO4)
- 2. Compose a multi-paragraph essay with a clear organizational structure and adequate support. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3, ILO4)
- 3. Compose a multi-paragraph essay that uses correctly formed sentences with virtually no sentence-level or grammar errors. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO4)
- 4. Develop a research paper that effectively synthesizes ideas and information from multiple sources and utilizes correct MLA formatting of citations. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3, ILO4, ILO5)

Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

- 1. Develop and write expository essays totaling at least 4,000 words, including a mini research paper.
- 2. Design an essay plan based on concrete data in pre-writing exercises that produces a controlling idea or thesis statement.
- 3. Organize content to support a thesis statement and subsequent supporting paragraphs while studying and applying various rhetorical modes with emphasis on comparison/contrast, definition, cause/effect, and argumentation.
- 4. Demonstrate the ability to write a paper for an academic audience.
- 5. Synthesize ideas and information from multiple sources in the development of a writing assignment that is supported by citations from the reading.
- 6. Practice a variety of sentence types and demonstrate principles of effective sentence construction and punctuation.
- 7. Practice and successfully demonstrate the skills in areas designated by the instructor to be appropriate supplemental activities of improved writing technique.
- 8. Understand academic ethics, and avoid plagiarism.

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

There will be four main essays in this class – in addition to more minor essays and writings that may be assigned throughout the semester – which will be revised and peer-edited before they are handed in. The first will be a narrative essay, the second cause/effect, the third argument, and the fourth literary response. Finally, there will be a research paper. Eight grammar projects will be assigned and presented during the course of the class as well as two quizzes and pre and post diagnostic tests to comprise the grammar percentage of the final grade. There will also be impromptu in-class writing assignments, discussions and assignments on Blackboard, a midterm, and a final. In addition, reading journals will be assigned for portions of the novel, and discussions about the readings will be held in class. Writing assignments will be graded on appropriate grammar, formatting, organization and improvement from the last essay. At the end of the course, there will be a common final that is to be graded by another English 009 professor. The final will be graded as a pass (100%) or a fail (0%). Remember that grammar always matters and proofreading is a necessity for every assignment.

Due dates for all assignments can be found on the attached schedule or on Blackboard. Any changes to due dates will be announced in class. Late work will not be accepted.

Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

Essays	40%
Common Final	15%
Midterm	10%
Research Paper	10%
Assignments	10%
Grammar	10%
Participation	5%

Students must have at least a total of 70% as their final grade to pass the class.

Expectations

- 1. This is a college level writing class. Grammar will be considered in the grading of all assignments.
- 2. Proofreading is expected. Typos, spelling errors, and mechanical issues should be at an absolute minimum.
- 3. Participation is necessary. This means that asking questions, completing all assignments, utilizing the English lab/tutors, and contacting the instructor if there are any problems is absolutely encouraged.
- 4. All in-class writing assignments should be turned in on or before the due date, and written legibly in blue or black ink. All other assignments should be typed, double spaced, and in 12 pt. Times New Roman font.
- 5. Plagiarism is unacceptable and merits a failing grade for the assignment in which it appeared.
- 6. Be on time, be respectful, be committed. Writing requires practice and dedication; both are expected from all students.
- 7. This is an English class at an English-speaking institution; therefore, English should be spoken exclusively during the allotted class time.

Academic Honesty

- Plagiarism is to take and present as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. Understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to correctly 'cite a source', you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials, or assisting others in using materials, which are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General School Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment, (e) use of a commercial term paper service

Attendance

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.

Classroom Etiquette

- Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class unless otherwise directed by the instructor.
- Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed.
- Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.
- Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, no one who is not enrolled in the class may not attend, including children.

Disabled Student Programs and Services (DSPS)

Any student with a documented disability who may need educational accommodations should notify the instructor or the Disabled Student Programs and Services (DSP&S) office as soon as possible. The DSP&S office is located in Building 2100, telephone 760-355-6313 if you feel you need to be evaluated for educational accommodations.

Student Counseling and Health Services

Students have counseling and health services available, provided by the pre-paid Student Health Fee. We now also have a fulltime mental health counselor. For information see http://www.imperial.edu/students/student-health-center/. The IVC Student Health Center is located in the Health Science building in Room 2109, telephone 760-355-6310.

Student Rights and Responsibilities

Students have the right to experience a positive learning environment and due process. For further information regarding student rights and responsibilities please refer to the IVC General Catalog available online at
