Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

Essays: There are 3 major research-based essays to be written through the semester. The assignments for the essays include a Rough Draft and a Final Draft, with various readings, writing assignments, and reviews for each paper. The requirements for the essays will be fully explained at the beginning of each essay assignment.

Rough drafts: Rough drafts are developed through a research and drafting process before being submitted at the due date (listed in the calendar). Rough Drafts must be turned in on time and are not accepted late. Late Rough Drafts result in losing one letter grade (10%) from the overall Final Draft essay grade.

Final drafts: Final drafts are developed from the Rough Draft writing and will be reviewed multiple times before being turned in. Final draft papers may be turned in up to a week late, but will only be eligible for half credit. Essentially, the Final Draft receives the only grade, but the work completed by the Final Draft due date has an impact on the grade.

Journals: Journals are one-page entries, written at least five (5) days a week, with most of the writing done out of class. Journals will be graded randomly throughout the semester. If you miss a journal check, you will have until the next class to turn your journal in. There are no make-ups for any missed journals, and you cannot turn in late journals at the next check.

Final: This final essay writing is known as the Common Final and will be written at the end of the semester. Preparatory writings and discussion of this essay will take place throughout the course.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

Essay #1	10%	90-100%	=	A
• Research/Annotated Biblio.		89-80%	=	B
• Rough Draft		79-70%	=	C
• Multiple Reviews		69-60%	=	D
• Final Draft		59-0%	=	F
Essay #2	15%
• Same as E#1
Essay #3	20%
• Same as E#1 and #2
Journals (70 total, minimum)	30%
CF Prep essays	15%
Final	10%

Late work: Any class or homework is expected to be completed on time. Generally, any homework is collected within the first 10 minutes of class; if you arrive after that time frame, your work may be considered late. If an assignment is accepted as late work, it will only be eligible for up to half credit. If you are unsure if an assignment is accepted late, don't hesitate to ask.

Again, Rough Draft essays and journal entries that missed a particular check are not accepted after their due dates.

Attendance

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. The deadline to drop the class with a W is Friday, May 12, 2017. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week will be dropped.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.
- Class begins ON TIME. Make the effort to arrive so you are ready when class starts. If you arrive to class late, please do not cause any interruption if I'm lecturing by talking to me, using the stapler, handing in work, talking to classmates, or anything else disruptive. Quietly find a seat and get started with the class. You will be given an appropriate time later in class to turn in work, get work handed back, ask questions, or whatever else you may need.

Classroom Etiquette

Respect in my classroom, my office, through email, over the phone, and in my general presence is an overall expectation: I will most certainly give it to you, and I expect you to return the respect to me. The following are some of the school-wide expectations/restrictions, and I ask for behavior, cooperation, and language that is respectful, responsible, and polite.

- Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be silenced/turned off and put away during class, unless I give permission for their use.
- Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception.
- Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.
- Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, no one who is not enrolled in the class may attend, including children.

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another's work and recognize the important of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.
