Required Textbook: Exploring Psychology (10th Edition) David G. Myers

Course Description: This course is an introduction to the study of human behavior and cognition. Includes consideration of many of the major topics in psychology including, but not limited to, the biology of behavior, learning, human development, sleep and consciousness, personality, mental disorders and therapy, and social processes

Student Learning Outcome (IVC): In order to demonstrate your comprehension of introductory psychology you will be required to identify major psychological disorders, key symptoms, and the main strategies used for treatment. (ILO1; ILO2; ILO3; ILO5)

Course Requirements:

Attendance and Class Participation

Attendance is a crucial part of this course. Students are expected to demonstrate their understanding of the assigned readings by actively participating in class discussion. If you are absent, it is your responsibility to get class notes from a fellow student. Additionally, if you decide not to continue the course, it is your responsibility to drop the course on WEBSTAR by or before the drop date.

Thought Papers (3 @ 25 pts)

There will be a total of three thought papers throughout the semester. This is a 1-2 page paper based on the readings and class material. Thought papers should address an interesting idea regarding a learned behavior from the text, class discussion, an article from the internet or magazine, movie and/or television show from your point of view. Please do not provide a review of the assigned reading but your own thoughts regarding the topic. The main focus of this assignment is for you to think critically about psychology and to begin exploring your ideas. You do not have to write what you think I would agree with, you just need to justify your ideas and statements with explanations.

Each paper is worth twenty-five points. All thought papers must be typed, in twelve point font, and double spaced. All papers are due at the beginning of class. No late papers will be accepted nor will they be accepted via e-mail.

Project (100 pts)

Students will research and present a power point on a psychological disorder (Chapters 14 and 15). The presentation must be a minimum of 7 slides. A hard copy must be submitted to me before you begin your presentation in class. The presentation must include the definition of the disorder, the diagnosis and symptoms, therapies, types of medications used to treat the symptoms, and statistics. Your presentation must be twenty minutes in length.

Please make sure to tell the class everything they need to know about your topic. Remember, you are the teacher! You may use handouts, demonstrations, etc. Please, make it interesting, interactive and be creative! Do not just read from your power point. Further instructions will be given in class.

Tests (3 @ 50 pts)

There will be a total of three tests given throughout the semester. All tests will be multiple choice and are worth fifty points each. Please make sure to bring a #2 pencil and scantron with you to class. No make-up exams will be given.

A make-up exam will only be allowed with a 48-hour prior notification and/or a documented proof of the emergency, jury duty or medical appointment unable to be scheduled at a different time. All make-up exams must be completed the week prior to finals.

In-Class/Homework Assignments (5 @ 15 pts)

In class assignments and/or homework will be given for each chapter we cover. Further information will be given as the semester transpires.
