Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

Primary Reading Assignments — Sacred texts are often central to the beliefs and practices of a religion, and having some exposure to such texts provides context to religious worldviews. Selections from religious texts will be provided, and students will answer questions and prompts based on the readings.

Exams — Two exams will be given in class. The exams will not be cumulative. Students will be given time and resources to prepare and review.

Comparison Essay — Each student will submit a 10-12 page essay comparing and contrasting two of the following religions: Hinduism, Buddhism, Judaism, Christianity, Islam, and Sikhism. Students may choose which two religions to compare. The essay must address each religion's belief in the worldview categories of (1) Origin, (2) Telos, (3) Problem, (4) Solution, (5) Means, and (6) Ultimate Reality. Each essay will show how the two religions might be similar or different in these six categories.

The essay document must use the following criteria: Times New Roman with 12pt font, 1" margins, and double-spaced. Grammar and syntax will not be directly graded, but poor writing might obscure the content of the essay and thereby negatively affect your grade. Please read your essay aloud and make corrections prior to submission.

The essay will be graded on: Accurate portrayal of each religion, appropriate comparisons and contrasts between the religions, engagement with the six worldview categories, essay organization, and document specifications.

Class Participation — Students will engage in any discussions, lectures, or other activities during class hours.

Late Assignment Policy: Exams and comparison papers will be docked 10% if they are submitted any time after the assignment deadline, and will be docked 5% each day they continue to be unsubmitted, up to three days. Any assignment not turned in 72 hours after the original deadline will not be accepted. Late quizzes will not be accepted. Documented exceptions may be granted with written instructor permission.

Attendance

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class may be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

Classroom Etiquette

- Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class, unless otherwise directed by the instructor.
- Civility and Respect: Students are expected to behave with respect and civility toward not only the instructor, but also toward peers. Abuse, verbal or otherwise, will not be tolerated.
- Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed by the instructor.
- Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.
- Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, only students enrolled in the class may attend; children are not allowed.

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another's work and recognize the important of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.

- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.

Student Equity Program

- The Student Equity Program strives to improve Imperial Valley College's success outcomes, particularly for students who have been historically underrepresented and underserved. The college identifies strategies to monitor and address equity issues, making efforts to mitigate any disproportionate impact on student success and achievement. Our institutional data provides insight surrounding student populations who historically, are not fully represented. Student Equity addresses disparities and/or disproportionate impact in student success across disaggregated student equity groups including gender, ethnicity, disability status, financial need, Veterans, foster youth, homelessness, and formerly incarcerated students. The Student Equity Program provides direct supportive services to empower students experiencing insecurities related to food, housing, transportation, textbooks, and shower access. We recognize that students who struggle meeting their basic needs are also at an academic and economic disadvantage, creating barriers to academic success and wellness. We strive to remove barriers that affect IVC students' access to education, degree and certificate completion, successful completion of developmental math and English courses, and the ability to transfer to a university. Contact: 760.355.5736 or 760.355.5733 Building 100.

- The Student Equity Program also houses IVC’s Homeless Liaison, who provides direct services, campus, and community referrals to students experiencing homelessness as defined by the McKinney-Vento Act. Contact: 760.355.5736 Building 100.
