Note: You need to log in by Friday at noon on August 23rd or you will be dropped. Any student who does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class on a timely basis will be dropped. After the first week, students are dropped if they do not complete any assignments over a 2-week period or miss two consecutive essays by their due dates. Do not enroll in an online course if you cannot keep track of assignments or if you need someone in a classroom to remind you constantly to do assignments. If that describes you, stop reading this and drop the course now so someone else can take it. Enroll in a course that meets in a classroom. However, if you are a self-starter and are self-motivated, wow-- online learning can work WELL for you!

We will meet one time this semester. That's for the final exam in Week 15. (The course is 16 weeks long.) The final exam is NOT the last week; it's the week before. See important information about the final exam (pages) below.

Course Description

Preparation for ENGL 110. The course seeks to facilitate the student's mastery of the short essay at the college level. The course follows in sequence from ENGL 008 (ENGL 098). (Nontransferable, nondegree applicable)

Course Prerequisite(s) and/or Corequisite(s)

ENGL 008 with a grade of "C" or better or appropriate placement.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

1. Develop an essay that contains a thesis statement, provides adequate support, and employs a clear organizational structure.

(ILO1, ILO2, ILO4)

2. Develop an essay that avoids sentence-level and grammatical errors. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3, ILO4)

3. Develop a research paper that effectively synthesizes ideas and information from multiple sources and utilizes correct MLA formatting of citations. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3, ILO4, ILO5)

4. Demonstrate an ability to comprehend and interpret college-level texts, including arguments, without relying on outside sources for assistance. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3, ILO4)

Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Develop and apply discovery techniques for expository writing with five or more multi-paragraph essays, including a mini research paper.

2. Design an essay plan based on concrete data in pre-writing exercises that produces a controlling idea or thesis statement.

3. Organize content to support a thesis statement and subsequent supporting paragraphs while studying and applying various rhetorical modes with emphasis on comparison/contrast, definition, cause/effect, and argumentation.

4. Demonstrate the ability to recognize and identify various audiences, both general and academic, focusing on academic audiences.

5. Synthesize ideas and information from multiple sources in the development of a writing assignment that is supported by citations from the reading.

6. Practice a variety of sentence types and demonstrate principles of effective sentence construction and punctuation, including correct use of the comma, semicolon, quotation mark, apostrophe, and parentheses.
7. Demonstrate an understanding of connotative meaning and figurative language in his/her own writing after recognizing this technique in the writing of others.
8. Practice and successfully demonstrate the skills in areas designated by the instructor to be appropriate supplemental activities of improved writing technique.

The National Football League and Brain Injuries case study will be needed for our third essay, so there is no urgency to purchase it at the beginning of the semester.

Recommended Books/Materials:

1) Recommended book (not necessary to purchase, but it connects to the theme of the Mini-Research paper and you can also get extra credit for reading it):

Title of Book: When Prophecy Fails Authors: Leon Festinger, Riecken, Schacter

Paperback version ISBN: 9781578988525 Electronic version ISBN: 1982998032

This book has been in print since the 1950's. There are many printed editions with different cover designs, yet the text is the same. Buy any version you wish whether printed on paper or an electronic version, new or used. Buying this book is not required; you have extra credit opportunities with reading this book, and again you can use it as research materials for the Mini-Research paper (last essay).

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

Over the course of this term, students will read, examine, analyze, and evaluate readings, video lectures and a 20-page case study. Students will participate in online discussion threads. Students will learn basic college composition skills, focusing on writing essays, leading to a Mini-Research paper.

Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of- class time per week over the span of a semester.

Since this is an online class and we do not meet in the classroom each week, be prepared to spend about 12 hours each week on English 9 online. You should plan on logging on to Canvas and working on this class every day. Try to complete at least one task every time you log on to this class.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

Major Writing Assignments

- | | |
|---|------------|
| 1. Brainology paragraph (Dweck) | 50 points |
| 2. Definition Mode Essay (Dweck/Zimbardo) | 100 points |
| 3. Compare/Contrast Essay (Carl Jung/American Dream) | 150 points |
| 4. Argument Essay (NFL & Brain Injuries/Hamermesh & Preble) | 150 points |
| *5. Final exam (essay written in class) | 200 points |
| 6. Mini-Research paper (cause/effect mode/Mass Delusions) | 200 points |

Note: If the Mini-Research paper is not handed in, there will be NO opportunity to pass the course. Period. This is not an optional assignment, regardless of the number of points you will have accumulated. No Mini-Research paper = no pass ! Writing this paper best prepares you for ENGL 110.

* The final exam is basically graded on a pass/fail basis, and there are three possible grades:
Fail: 0 points Pass: 150 points (75%) High Pass: 200 points (100%)

Other Assignments

Outlines	60 points (3 x 20 points each)
Sentence Writing Exercises	90 points (6 x 15 points each)
Quiz	14 points
Discussions	180 points (15 x 12 points each)

Grading Scale

- 1075 - 1194 = A
955 - 1074 = B
836 - 954 = C
716 - 835 = D

0 - 715 = F

- Deadlines and late work: Check upcoming deadlines regularly. All deadlines are posted there. A short grace period of one day for discussion boards and up to two days for essays and some other assignments can be requested if I am contacted in advance of the due date with a reasonable explanation for the request. Expect any late work to be docked points. Don't expect work completed more than two days late to be awarded any points.

- Note that plagiarism results in a zero for any assignment and could lead to discipline by the college which could not only mean dismissal from the class but also permanent expulsion from IVC. A zero especially on a major assignment also usually makes it impossible to pass the course. Yes, it's easy to cut and paste text from the internet. You should be very aware that due to technology, detecting plagiarism is even easier for us. We don't have to even look. The system alerts us. If there is any plagiarism, I give you a 100% guarantee that this technology shall find it, whether it's from text on any page on the internet or another student's paper. Of course there are NO do-overs for a plagiarized assignment. Most students would never plagiarize. But those few who might will very easily be caught and will suffer consequences.

(Note: If you are retaking this course, avoid self-plagiarism; that is, you will need to within reason hand in a substantially different essay even though it may be on the same topic as before. Any essay that is substantially the same as the student's own previous work will be graded zero.)

- There are no "do-overs" for any reason on any assignment. Everyone gets one shot to complete each assignment.

- Also note that the instructor reserves the right to assign a grade of zero to any assignments if the quality of writing is not similar to the quality of writing shown in the final exam.

Advice on Grades • Success in Class

They say common sense isn't so common anymore, so here it goes! Absolutely do your utmost to COMPLETE every assignment. Hand in ALL the essays. And do your best to complete ALL of the other assignments as (1) those assignments prepare you to succeed in the weightier assignments and (2) all those little points that may not seem so much at first definitely add up to a lot of points by the semester's end!

I hope you have the same experience I have had with online learning. I have taken about twelve online courses. I loved each and every one of them! Keep track of assignments and knock them out one by one!

Attendance

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class on a timely basis will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities the first week and thereafter for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped. If you do not consistently complete assignments, you will be dropped. If you have questions about any assignments, contact me; I am very happy to help!
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

Communication Policy

The best way to contact me is via email or message via Canvas. (My direct email address is scott.simpson@imperial.edu.)

Expect a response within 24 hours. Both phone messages and email can be unreliable, so please use the messaging system on Canvas. You may also come to see me on campus during my on-campus office. Even though my office hours are posted above, I may be available additional hours. Write me to make an appointment. I also have office hours online via Skype.

You should have multiple internet browsers on your computer: Chrome, Firefox, Safari, etc. as some websites function best with a particular browser. If you have difficulties accessing all the functions for Canvas, try another browser which will probably work perfectly.

Learning Units

Because we don't meet in class, students need to read information rather than receive information through the traditional lecture. Every week usually on Sunday mornings a new week's Module/Learning Unit will open up for you, so you can start early on the week's work. Work consistently through each weekly Module.

Each Module begins with an overview/schedule that lists the unit objectives, learning outcomes, and what you will do to successfully complete the Module. You may print out these overviews/schedules, and check off the activities as you complete them.

Home view in Canvas • Some activities in the Module may be informational, and others will require you to complete a task or assignment. Deadlines are seen in Home view and can also be seen when clicking on the assignment in Home view. Stay in Home view when looking for assignments to do. You will definitely get lost if you start clicking randomly on other menu items on the left side (in Canvas). You will likely find assignments that are not for our course unless you stay on Home view.

Mini-Research Paper

A 3-5 page research paper will be due at the end of the semester. It will require at least four sources from the IVC databases that must be documented according to the Modern Language Association (MLA) guidelines. Around Week 12, we will discuss this in depth.

Final Exam

The final exam (given Week 15 -- the week before the last week) will be an essay written in class on a topic for which you will have no preparation. In the essay, demonstrate readiness to enter the next class English 110 by writing in accordance with all the principles you learned this semester. Therefore, the essay must show solid development of ideas with a strong thesis statement, topic sentences, and logical organization. Details must be strong and specific. The text must be written in correctly formed sentences with virtually no sentence-level or grammar errors. Strong command of diction, verb usage, and standard English is required to pass.

There are three possible scores on the final exam: no pass, pass, and high pass.

A grade of "no pass" is zero points. A grade of "pass" is 150 points (75%). A grade of "high pass" is 200 points (100%!).

Important information for those who live outside the Imperial /Mexicali Valley region: The final exam is proctored. Approximately one week before the final exam, the date, time and room location information at IVC will be communicated to you. If you are unable to make it at that day/time, then an optional date and time will be provided for you at IVC. Let me know immediately if this is your situation, and we will make other arrangements. However, if you are unable to take the final exam at IVC because the distance to the college is a hardship (for example, you live far from the area), you are responsible for finding a proctoring center (usually, another community college) that is convenient for you where you will take the final exam, and you are also responsible for any costs incurred for the proctoring service, which must be pre-approved by the instructor. In that case, the proctoring service information must be submitted to the instructor on a timely basis, so the final exam can be submitted and received on a timely basis.

Canvas

This class will use Canvas for Announcements, Gradebook, and Discussions. Students will be expected to check Canvas regularly. If I need to contact a student, I will use the message function on Canvas.

If you have never logged into Canvas before, here are instructions:

Canvas website: Login Instructions for Students

Students can login by going to www.imperial.edu and in the Student Menu selecting Canvas.

For your username, you will use the first part of your student email address (e.g. jdoe2)

For your password, you will use your WebSTAR PIN (which should automatically be synced when updated via WebSTAR)

If you do not know your IVC email address, these two locations can help you find out that information:

- <https://www.imperial.edu/students/student-email-lookup/> (Does not require additional login, but will only work if the student is registered for 0.5 or more units for the current semester)
- <https://my.imperial.edu/student-email> (This does require additional login to the Student Portal, but will work regardless of whether or not the student is registered for any classes.)

Essay Response Time Policy

Students should expect a reasonable response time to essays of approximately two weeks from the time of submission. Essays will be returned via pick up at the English Department unless I am notified that another way is preferred like providing a high resolution scan. Essays are graded with great care and attention, and understand that I may receive about 100 essays at a time. Read through returned essays and use the comments to improve upon subsequent essays. There isn't much sense in repeating the same types of errors over and over again. That would show no improvement or readiness for the next class level. Most students have one or two issues with their writing. Whatever your issue is, I guarantee that I will identify your issues by name [weak thesis, run-on sentences, lack of academic type support (research) in body paragraphs, etc], so you can focus on those and IMPROVE for the next essay. Understand... believe... know as a fact that I want you to improve your college writing, succeed in this class, take higher level courses, succeed in them and graduate! (See you at graduation!) It does take a lot of time to read and comment on your work. Submissions are read in the order they are received. All essays are automatically and electronically put through a plagiarism checker that works like a champ. Essays that are excessively late (a week or more after the assignment due date) with no prior communication about it from the student can be expected to result in the essay not being accepted. Late essays, even a day late, enter at the deep bottom of the tall stack, so they may be returned much later than if they had been turned in on time.

Classroom Etiquette

We will meet for the final exam in the classroom. Keep the following in mind.

- Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off AND put away during class, unless otherwise directed by the instructor.
- Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed by the instructor.
- Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.
- Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, only students enrolled in the class may attend; children are not allowed.

Online Netiquette for Our Discussion Boards

- What is netiquette? Netiquette is internet manners, online etiquette, and digital etiquette all rolled into one word. Basically, netiquette is a set of rules for behaving properly online.
- Students are to comply with the following rules of netiquette: (1) identify yourself unless you're in a system that automatically does it for you, (2) include a subject line unless one is already provided for you, (3) avoid sarcasm, (4) respect others' opinions and privacy, (5) acknowledge and return messages promptly, (6) any copied text should be cited (state where it came from), (7) be concise, (8) use appropriate language, (9) use appropriate intensifiers to help convey meaning [THINK before using ALL CAPS or multiple exclamation marks (!!!!)].

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another's work and recognize the importance of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and always keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help. (Note: If you are retaking this course, avoid self-plagiarism; that is, you will need to within reason hand in a substantially different essay even though it may be on the same topic as before. Any essay that is substantially the same as the student's own previous work will be graded zero.)
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.

- Note that the instructor reserves the right to grade assignments handed in electronically as zeroes if the quality of writing is not similar to the quality of writing shown in the final exam.

Student Equity Program

- The Student Equity Program strives to improve Imperial Valley College's success outcomes, particularly for students who have been historically underrepresented and underserved. The college identifies strategies to monitor and address equity issues, making efforts to mitigate any disproportionate impact on student success and achievement. Our institutional data provides insight surrounding student populations who historically, are not fully represented. Student Equity addresses disparities and/or disproportionate impact in student success across disaggregated student equity groups including gender, ethnicity, disability status, financial need, Veterans, foster youth, homelessness, and formerly incarcerated students. The Student Equity Program provides direct supportive services to empower students experiencing insecurities related to food, housing, transportation, textbooks, and shower access. We recognize that students who struggle meeting their basic needs are also at an academic and economic disadvantage, creating barriers to academic success and wellness. We strive to remove barriers that affect IVC students' access to education, degree and certificate completion, successful completion of developmental math and English courses, and the ability to transfer to a university. Contact: 760.355.5736 or 760.355.5733 Building 100.

- The Student Equity Program also houses IVC's Homeless Liaison, who provides direct services, campus, and community referrals to students experiencing homelessness as defined by the McKinney-Vento Act. Contact: 760.355.5736 Building 100.
